Program/Fundraisers

-Science Fair update-Felicia gave the update that the Science Fair is happening tomorrow. There are two sessions, 6pm for younger kids and second session for middle schoolers. Should run about an hour per session. Felicia asked for some more help for proctors.

-Kentucky Derby update-Ingrid asked if anyone had alcohol for the wine pull, especially spirits. Diana reported under 10 tickets had been sold so far. Christina said a lot off people were making their tables first. Marielena asked if the classes were responsible to make their own baskets. Christina said they will supply the bow.

-Teacher Appreciation week update-Christina reported it's coming together. Lisa Smith is making the invite. It's a super hero theme. Monday breakfast, Tuesday afternoon snack, Wed lunch, Thursday they'll make a scarf at the Community Center and Friday morning is coffee. The teachers are getting tumblers that say "I teach, what's your superpower?".It takes place May 7-11th. It will all be out on Konstella.

-Spirit wear update-Diana reported there were 4 sales. One was a towel and 10 must be purchased so we probably have to tell them they can't purchase the towel since no one else is.

New Business

Amanda said there were books in the flyer that she ordered but they never came. She's still waiting for the online orders. She's going to reach out again to get the people the books they ordered.

Marielena & Stacey will meet for the scholarship committee on Thursday, May 3rd . She needs more people who don't have children in the school.
